Thank God for Mothers!

The mission of a mother is to nurture and guide children. No mothers do this perfectly and some people were even deprived of knowing their mothers. Imperfect as we all are, we try to fulfill our role in God's plan to the extent we are able and with the help of His grace.

Mothers are often the unsung heroes of our society. Sometimes it is because they stay at home and thus are not "productive" –having no salary or job title to show their importance. Other times, it is because they are recognized for their labors in the workplace and we fail to realize that they then miraculously find time to keep the family running as well. Some mothers have to do all this without the benefit of a husband—so they try to fill in for both roles. Today we justly honor all mothers for the love they daily manifest in their sacrifices and generosity.

Gratitude is the best gift that we can give our mothers. They need to know that their efforts are appreciated. Flowers and candy are great... but they don't replace the need to simply let our mothers know that they are blessings to their children.

May our Immaculate Mother Mary be the helper and consoler for all our mothers in their everyday task of bringing God's Love to their families!

May the Virgin Mary accompany us on our journey of faith in Jesus Christ!

Lord Jesus,

As you once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me!

Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests, and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service.

Saturday Confession

Saturday Confession will be at the Cathedral of Saint Paul from 3:30PM-5:00PM.

Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries, and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.
