Happy Feast Day!

September 27th is the day that the universal church honors our patron Saint Vincent de Paul. This great French priest is also the patron saint of all of the charitable works of the Church! That is how powerful his example is of putting his faith into action!

The saints are more than ideals to look up to... they are special friends given by God to accompany us on our journey to Heaven. We should show to the saints the same attention and affection that we give to the members of our human family. We truly are a spiritual family after all!

In his day Saint Vincent confronted poverty, war, political intrigue, and laxity among Christians. He has left us a rich legacy of faith that is worth celebrating! May our lives be modeled after his in supreme love for God and neighbor!

Father Joseph

Saint Vincent de Paul, pray for us!
